4. Parties and Judges may raise a “Motion to Suspend Proceedings” for designated breaks.

5. The Presidency shall announce the adjournment of the Court, after the Judgment has been announced, as stated in Article 10, paragraph 7.

6. Presidency shall entertain Motions. Simple majority of the Judges and Presidency is required for a Motion to pass.

7. Substance of the Points and Motions described in Section D shall apply to this Section.

SECTION D: RULES GOVERNING THE DELIBERATION OF THE JUDGES

Article 27: Deliberation of the Judges

1. Deliberation is the act of carefully considering issues and options before making a decision or taking action. Following phases described in Articles 18, 20, 22, 23, 24, and 25, Judges shall move to their Deliberation sessions and act according to the procedure described in this Section.

2. The Judgment shall be written during the final Deliberation session.

3. Members of the Presidency, the Secretariat, the Judges and third parties authorized by the Secretary-General can be present during deliberations with an exception of Article 21.

4. Time allocated for each Deliberation shall be determined by the President in accordance with the flow of the discussions.

5. While making their statements, Judges shall never be required to stand up.

6.The President shall moderate the Deliberations.

7.The President shall entertain Points and Motions. They shall decide on the Points. Motions shall be decided by themselves and Judges through voting.

Article 28: Summons for the Advocates

1.Upon the Motion of a Judge or the discretion of the President, the Court may summon the Advocates to the Court room. Such Motion shall pass with the simple majority of the Judges.

2.During the Summons, Advocates shall join the Deliberation of the Court. The following rules shall apply:

a.Advocates' participation shall be strictly limited to:

- i.Answering questions posed by Judges, upon the explicit referral of the President,
- ii.Asking questions to fellow Advocates, upon the explicit authorization of the President.

b.Advocates shall ask their questions through the following procedure:

- i.Advocates shall send a request to the President including the particular question through message paper, and wait for the approval,
- ii.Follow- up questions shall not be in order,
- iii.Each request shall be limited to one question.

3.There shall be no time limitation for this phase; yet, the President shall have the discretion to end the Summons in accordance with the flow of the discussions. The decision shall be open to appeals.

Article 29: Tour de Table

1.The President shall have the discretion to conduct a Tour de Table at any time during Open Discussion.

2.During Tour de Table, each Judge shall briefly outline their views on the matter under discussion.

3.The time allocated per each speaker shall be determined by the President.

4.The President shall be included in the Tour de Table.

Article 30: Open Discussion

1. During Deliberations, the Court will by default be in a state of Open Discussion.
2. During an Open Discussion, members present may raise their placard for a turn to speak when asked by the Presidency.
3. Members shall not speak out of turn.
4. The Presidency shall order the requests and entertain speakers when it is their turn.
5. The Presidency may set a time limit on speeches or terminate a speech at their discretion.
6. The Presidency may call upon any present member to speak if there are no raised or existing requests to speak.
7. The Presidency may grant themselves a turn to speak at any time between speeches.
8. The Presidency may open the floor for Motions at any time between speeches.
9. If there are no Motions on the floor, the Presidency shall continue with Open Discussion.
10. If a Motion passes, the Open Discussion is suspended for its duration.

1. When in an Open Discussion; Judges may yield their remaining time in two ways as follows:

- a. Yield to another Judge, or,
- b. Yield to Points of Information.

2. Judges shall be allowed to refrain from yields. When there are no yields, the P resident shall proceed with the Open Discussion.

3. The Presidency may prohibit yields at their discretion.

4. In case of yielding the floor to another Judge; the President shall ask the particular Judge to whom the yielding Judge refers if they wish to take the floor. Should the latter accept, they shall use the remaining time to make their statements. If the President has been yielded the floor; they shall immediately proceed with accepting or rejecting the yield. The latter speaker shall not be entitled to yields.

5. In case of yielding the floor to Points of Information; the P resident shall ask the remaining Judges if there are any questions directed to the yielding Judge. The yielding Judge shall answer any question directed to her/him until the yielded time lapses. Recognition of a follow-up question shall be up to the discretion of the President.

6. Only the answer shall be deduced from the remaining time.

7. Yields to yields are not in order.

Article 32: Unmoderated Caucus

1. A Judge may propose moving to an unmoderated caucus by raising a “Motion for an Unmoderated Caucus”. Such a Motion may be raised during Open Discussion when the President announces the floor is open for Motions.

2. The Judge raising the Motion shall briefly explain the purpose and specify a time length of the caucus, if any.

3. The President may rule the Motion out of order without any possibility of appeal or may alter the length of the caucus and put it to a vote.

4. Adoption of the Motion requires the approval of the simple majority of the Judges.

5. Adoption of such a Motion temporarily shall suspend the Open Discussion for the specified time and the Judges shall carry a formal discussion without leaving the Court.

Article 33: Moderated Caucus

1. A Judge may propose moving to a Moderated Caucus by raising a “Motion for a Moderated Caucus” during Open Discussion in order to facilitate debate on a specific issue when the President announces the floor is open for Motions.

2. The Judge raising the Motion must state the purpose of the moderated caucus and specify a total time for the caucus, not exceeding twenty minutes, and the time per each speaker.

3. The President may rule the Motion out of order without any possibility of appeal or may alter time per speaker, the total length of the caucus, or the purpose of the caucus, and put it to a vote.

4. Adoption of the Motion requires the approval of the simple majority of the Judges.

5. Adoption of such a Motion shall temporarily suspend the Open Discussion for the specified time and the Judges who signify their desire to speak by raising their placards may speak in turn upon recognition of the P resident.

6. The President may interrupt the speaker if the speaker exceeds the allocated time or if the speaker's remarks are not relevant to the topic under discussion.

7. Where there are no Judges who desire to speak or when the total time has expired; the moderated caucus shall end and the Open Discussion shall resume.

Article 34: Extensions

1. A caucus may be extended with a "Motion to Extend the Previous Motion" given by a Judge right after the allocated time for those moderated or unmoderated caucuses have lapsed.

2. The Presidency may rule the Motion out of order without any possibility of appeal.

3. This Motion shall be put a vote immediately after its proposal and its adoption requires a simple majority of the Judges.

4. The extension may not be longer than the caucus itself, unless otherwise is decided by the President for the sake of the Deliberation.

5. A caucus may only be extended once unless otherwise is decided by the President for the sake of the Deliberation.

Article 35: Right of Reply

1. Any Judge or Advocate whose personal integrity has been accused by another Judge or Advocate may submit a request for a Right of Reply to the Presidency through a message paper.

2. The Presidency shall grant the Right of Reply at their discretion. The decision is unappealable.

3. The Judge or Advocate granted a Right of Reply shall address the Court to defend her/his integrity in specified time determined by the President, not exceeding two minutes.

Article 36: Point of Personal Privilege

1. Members of the Court may request the President to intervene provided that a situation prevents their ability to participate in the proceedings through a “Point of Personal Privilege”.
2. A Point of Personal Privilege may not interrupt the speaker unless it is raised due to inaudibility.

Article 37: Point of Order

1. Members of the Court may raise a “Point of Order” to indicate an improper implementation of the Rules of Procedure by the Presidency or any other member of the Court.
2. The Presidency shall immediately take into consideration the Point pursuant to the Rules of Procedure.
3. A Point of Order which is dilatory or improper may be ruled out of order. This may be appealed by the members of the Court, subject to a two-thirds majority.
4. The Member of the Court raising a Point of Order may not speak on the substance of the matter under discussion.
5. A point of order may only interrupt a speaker if the speech is not following proper parliamentary procedure.

Article 38: Point of Insistence

1. If the member of the Court whose Point of Order is overruled by the Presidency still believes that a rule of the Rules of Procedure is being violated, he/she shall raise a “Point to Insistence on the Article”, via stating the specific Article. The Presidency is obliged to accept a Point to Insistence in any case, check the relevant Article and announce the outcome to the Court.
2. A Point to Insistence may only be raised immediately after the overrule decision in accordance with abovementioned criteria.
3. If usage in bad faith of a Court member to prejudice the Court proceedings is detected, the Presidency may foreclose that specific member from raising Point to Insistence with the consent of the Secretariat, pursuant to the Article 2 of this Rules of Procedure. Several overruled Point to Insistence of the same member shall constitute a presumption of bad faith.

4.A Point of Insistence to the overrule decision of a Point of Insistence is not in order.

Article 39: Point of Information

1.During Open Discussion, Judges may direct questions to their fellow members of the Court upon the President's recognition, if the speaker yields the floor to Points of Information.

2.A Point of Information may also be raised to the P resident, at any time during the deliberations, to raise a substantial question regarding the case.

3.A Point of Information can never interrupt a speaker.

Article 40: Point of Parliamentary Inquiry

1.Members of the Court may raise a Point of Parliamentary Inquiry requesting an explanation on the Rules of Procedure from the President.

2.A Point of Parliamentary Inquiry may neither interrupt a speaker nor be in regard to substantive matter.

Article 41: Suspension of the Deliberations

1.At the end of each Deliberation, or before the designated breaks; the President shall open the floor for the suspension of the Deliberations till the subsequent one.

2.The Motion shall pass with the approval of the simple majority of the P resident and Judges.

Article 42: Closure of the Deliberations

1.A Motion for the Closure of the Deliberations shall be raised by the Judges.

2.The Motion shall pass with the approval of the two-thirds majority of the P resident and Judges.

3.When the Deliberations are closed, President and Judges shall move onto the announcement of the Judgment.

Article 43: Points and Motions

1. In case where multiple Points and Motions are proposed at the same time, the proposed Points and Motions shall be ranked pursuant to the provisions stipulated in this Section and then will be entertained accordingly by the President.

2. Points shall have precedence over Motions at all times.

3. The precedence shall go as follows:
